COPYRIGHT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AGREEMENT

All materials distributed for the Pathways to Permanence 2: Parenting Children Who Have Experienced Trauma and Loss series are copyrighted and owned by Kinship Center® A Member of Seneca Family of Agencies unless otherwise noted and permission for use has been obtained from the copyright holder.

Kinship Center has licensed use and dissemination of this material for professional use by the individual named below who is a Facilitator for Pathways to Permanence 2. Duplication for sale of any material, or distribution of any material without the advance written consent of Kinship Center or the copyright holder, is expressly prohibited. Copyrighted by Kinship Center, 2012.

I understand that if I violate this agreement Kinship Center may take action to the full extent possible under the law. In the event any dispute arises relating to the interpretation or enforcement of this agreement that venue shall be in Monterey County, California, and it is further agreed that the prevailing party in any lawsuit or arbitration proceeding shall be awarded reasonable attorneys fees and costs, including the costs of experts, and that these fees and costs shall be awarded in that action, without the need to bring separate suit for enforcement or payment.

I have received the Facilitator's Guide and attendant CD, the Participant Resource Notebook and the Participant Notebook on CD, and understand that the copyright laws apply to all materials contained therein. I agree to abide by the above terms and conditions. This acknowledgement signed on:
