Competency Training

Parenting Children Who Have Experienced Trauma and Loss©

Pathways supports those parenting children and youth on permanency journeys, all of whom have experienced trauma and loss, to apply tools and techniques to effectively parent their children and youth and help them heal.

Comprehensive training in eight classes:

- Session 1: Parenting Children with Extra Needs
- Session 2: Lifelong Issues in Permanence
- Session 3: Childhood Development
- Session 4: Creating Positive Attachments, Part 1
- Session 5: Creating Positive Attachments, Part 2
- Session 6: Parenting the Child of Abuse and Neglect
- Session 7: Parenting the Child with Drug and Alcohol Exposure
- Session 8: Building a Community-based Family Support Program

NO COST: This course is free thanks to funding from the Ontario Ministry of Children and Youth Services. Child care available.
